

Tier 1.0: Pre-Writing Worksheet 1

“The Lottery” Foreshadowing and Irony Development

Foreshadowing: Find two quotes that foreshadow that the lottery is actually an event of horror that ends in one person getting stoned to death. Cite each quote correctly and then explain how each quote foreshadows the truth about the lottery. Make sure that you don't use the same argument/explanation twice.

Evidence A

- Quote and citation:

- Explanation:

Evidence B

- Quote and citation:

- Explanation:

Irony: Find two quotes that help develop irony in the story by intentionally misdirecting the reader to believe that the lottery is a good or exciting event, not a terrible one. Cite each quote correctly and then explain how each quote misdirects the reader from the truth about the lottery. Make sure that you don't use the same argument/explanation twice.

Evidence A

- Quote and citation:

- Explanation:

Evidence B

- Quote and citation:

- Explanation:

Tier 1.0: Pre-Writing Worksheet 1

“Charles” Foreshadowing and Irony Development

Foreshadowing: Find two quotes that foreshadow that Laurie and Charles are the same person. Cite each quote correctly and then explain how each quote foreshadows the truth about Charles and Laurie. Do NOT use any quotes from the end of the story, where Laurie's mom goes to the PTA meeting. Also make sure that you don't use the same argument/explanation twice.

Evidence A

- Quote and citation:

- Explanation:

Evidence B

- Quote and citation:

- Explanation:

Irony: Find two quotes that help develop irony in the story by intentionally misdirecting the reader to believe that Laurie and Charles are different people. Cite each quote correctly and then explain how each quote misdirects the reader from the truth about Charles and Laurie. Do NOT use any quotes from the end of the story, where Laurie's mom goes to the PTA meeting. Also make sure that you don't use the same argument/explanation twice.

Evidence A

- Quote and citation:

- Explanation:

Evidence B

- Quote and citation:

- Explanation: