

Human Rights
Independent Study “Journal”
“Micro” Text

Title of Text:

Author:

- Name at least one idea or specific sentences that especially stood out to/struck you. Briefly explain why you chose that/why it struck you.

- What parts of the text or what ideas within the text did you find confusing/have questions about (for any reason—lack of historical knowledge, vocabulary issues, or writing style)?

- What connections did you make to other people or events, texts, etc., while you were reading this text? What was it that made you think of those people, events, etc.?

- If you were to explore/research one or more ideas/topics in the text, what you want to research and why?

- Write the central idea of the text (or summarize the text’s main ideas in one to two sentences).